

10 Holiday Celebration Kit

A warm, flexible plan for gatherings that feel joyful instead of frantic.

Move from idea to invitation, preparation, welcome, and meaningful close.

Choose the Feeling

Define the purpose and tone before buying or planning anything.

We want guests to feel...

The people this celebration should welcome are...

Our must-have tradition is...

One pressure we will remove is...

The simplest version of this event would be...

Plan the Flow

Map a realistic sequence with breathing room between moments.

Arrival and welcome time: ...

Opening activity or blessing: ...

Food or refreshment window: ...

Main shared activity: ...

Quiet close and departure plan: ...

Prepare the Welcome

Create an inclusive arrival that tells people what to expect.

Post or say the event schedule

Set out name tags or conversation cards

Create a quiet seat or low-sensory option

Mark beverages and common allergens

Assign one person to greet late arrivals

Simple Joy

Choose low-cost activities guests can join or skip.

Make a gratitude paper chain

Trade kind notes anonymously

Play a cooperative trivia round

Create a shared playlist with opt-in songs

Set up a photo-free craft table

Care for Guests

Anticipate comfort, access, food, and emotional needs.

Offer water and a clearly labeled non-food option

Keep a restroom route and exits clear

Plan a child-friendly or mobility-friendly alternative

Name how guests can take a break

Choose a respectful response to an unexpected conflict

Close with Meaning

Finish well and capture improvements for next time.

Thank guests for one specific contribution

Share the final song, reading, or reflection

Pack leftovers and supplies safely

Send a brief appreciation message by...

Next time we will keep, change, or skip...

Use and safety note

Offer non-food and quiet options, label allergens, keep walkways clear, and never pressure guests to participate or share personal details.

This printable tool is for general education and organization. Adapt it to your household, abilities, schedule, and circumstances.