One uncertainty I should verify is...

Documents and Money

Gather access items before clothing distracts you.

Government ID or passport expiration checked

Tickets, reservations, and address saved offline

Insurance and emergency contacts available

Payment cards and a small backup method packed

Copies of critical documents stored securely

Clothing System

Plan outfits by use, layers, and rewear—not fantasy.

Base layers for... days

One warm or rain layer

Comfortable walking shoes plus...

Sleepwear and undergarments

One outfit for the most formal activity

Health and Comfort

Build a small kit for routine needs and accessibility.

Daily medications in original labeled containers

Prescriptions, supplies, and a time-zone plan

Basic first-aid and personal-care items

Glasses, hearing aids, or mobility supports

Comfort item for sleep or sensory needs

Tech and Day Bag

Prepare power, navigation, and in-transit comfort.

Chargers and one compatible adapter

Phone with maps, tickets, and contacts available offline

Headphones or earplugs

Refillable water bottle if permitted

Small snack and required comfort item

Final Sweep

Use a leaving-home check that prevents avoidable stress.

Laundry, trash, appliances, and windows checked

Keys, wallet, ID, medications, and phone in hand

Weather and transport status reviewed

Home or pet care instructions shared

A photo of packed essentials saved if useful

Use and safety note

Check current airline, border, medication, and destination rules; keep IDs, prescriptions, valuables, and emergency contacts secure.
