

15 Party Planning Checklist

A practical path from first idea to welcoming guests and restoring the space.

Coordinate purpose, guest experience, food, activities, safety, and cleanup in one place.

Define the Party

Make decisions that keep the event focused and affordable.

The occasion and desired feeling are...

Guest count range is...

Date, time, and location are...

Our budget ceiling is...

One thing we will not overcomplicate is...

Invite and Track

Give guests clear information and a low-friction way to respond.

Invitation includes date, time, address, and parking

RSVP deadline and contact method are...

Accessibility or dietary question included

Plus-one and child expectations are clear

Final headcount is confirmed by...

Food and Drink

Plan enough variety without creating a kitchen emergency.

Main food and serving amount: ...

Vegetarian, allergy-aware, and child-friendly option

Nonalcoholic drinks and water available

Serving utensils, labels, and cold storage ready

Food-safe leftover containers prepared

Room and Flow

Make arrival, mingling, activity, and restroom routes obvious.

Entry and welcome area cleared

Seating for different needs arranged

Activity supplies placed where guests can find them

Valuables, cords, and fragile items secured

Trash, recycling, and restroom supplies ready

Host the Moment

Share responsibility so the host can participate too.

Assign a greeter

Assign a food or beverage helper

Name the activity leader or timekeeper

Plan a quiet option for anyone needing a break

Choose a signal for the final activity

Close and Recover

Finish graciously and protect tomorrow's energy.

Thank guests and share any needed follow-up

Pack food safely within recommended time

Collect borrowed items and personal belongings

Reset only the essentials tonight

Record one improvement for the next party

Use and safety note

Follow local food-safety guidance, label allergens, provide safe supervision, and never share guest contact details without permission.

This printable tool is for general education and organization. Adapt it to your household, abilities, schedule, and circumstances.